

Our Goal is to make each athlete a better lacrosse player by teaching the elements needed to be successful on the junior high, high school and collegiate levels. Campers will leave with an understanding of up-to-date techniques and strategies. They will gain valuable experience by carrying out drills, competing in situational scrimmages and playing regulation games. The Lacrosse Academy prides itself on the individual attention given to each athlete while promoting team camaraderie.

Meet the Director

Adrienne Carr - Owner/Director/Coach

Adrienne Carr enters her ninth year as the head women's lacrosse coach at Fairleigh Dickinson University in Madison, NJ. Under her direction the Devils have seen their greatest success, setting school records in every area including wins. Throughout Carr's tenure, she has lead the Devils to 5 ECAC appearances that included 2 titles, 5 MAC appearances that included 3 championship games and 1 title and 1 NCAA berth. In 2008 she was recognized as MASCAC coach of the year. Carr has been running successful camps, clinics and travel teams for the past nine years. She also serves as Associate Athletics Director at Fairleigh Dickinson. Prior to coming to FDU, she starred collegiately in both lacrosse and field hockey at Rutgers University.
